WESTERN UNIVERSITY

COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of the course, students will be expected to:

be able to identify some of the major geographical locations and other landmarks in Quebec.

have a basic understanding of the historical, social and political development of the province.

be able to identify some of the important historical, social and political figures and events acquire a better understanding of what it is to be Québécois, including the concepts of sovereignty, separatism, and federal and provincial nationalism.

Required Texts:

There are no required texts for the course. A web site has been created which includes the majority of the lectures. This "Internet-