

This syllabus has been

NOVEMBER

- 4 Nourbese Philip, She Tries Her Tongue Her Silence Softly Breaks
- 6 Nourbese Philip, She Tries Her Tongue Her Silence Softly Breaks

The first Idea Card is due in tutorial the first week of class, and thereafter they must be submitted to your tutorial leader at the beginning or end of the Wednesday lecture.

Late Paper Policy:

-year course which you can use all at once, or allocate them between your various term assignments (first essay, second essay, or re intended to accommodate the accidents that commonly notes, kid sister drew all over essay, overslept, etc. etc). Grace days are not transferable, nor do the - that means that Saturdays and Sundays are free.

A wise course is to save your grace days until you really need them, particularly in second term when you will probably be under a lot more pressure than in first term. When your Grace Days requiring further extensions based on medical or compassionate grounds must apply, with documentation, for academic accommodation to the Academic Counselling office of their home Faculty. Academic accommodation cannot be granted by the instructor or department.

Late assignments. If you submit a paper after the due date (plus whatever grace days you have remaining) but within two weeks of it, the paper will be counted as late and the following procedures will apply:

The paper will not be read until all the assignments handed in on time have been read and returned (all papers are read in order of receipt).

The paper will be read and a grade given, but NO COMMENTS OR CORRECTIONS will be made on it.

The grade will be reduced by a penalty of two marks (2%) for each calendar day that it is late. Note that when a paper is late, every day counts (including weekends); however the arrangements for date-stamping essays in the Department of English essay box are accepted for late essays.

PAPERS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED IF SUBMITTED MORE THAN TWO WEEKS AFTER THE DUE DATE UNLESS PRIOR ARRANGEMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE.

Accommodation

Students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds for any missed tests, exams, participation components and/or assignments worth 10% or more of their final grade must apply to the Academic Counselling office of their home Faculty and provide documentation. Academic accommodation cannot be granted by the instructor or department. Documentation shall be