Modern Language Review

Tests

The translation tests are designed simply to do what is claims. All texts will be read in the original language and you need to know it.

Paper

The research paper must be presented in MLA style. The paper is due in hard copy (and electronically) on the date assigned. Late essays will lose 3% per day (including weekends). Essays must be submitted to Turnitin on or before the due date. Late papers may be submitted to the drop box outside the English Dept (Fridays) will be considered submitted on the following day (so get them in before the collection times).

Seminar Presentations

The student will lead class discussion on a predetermined topic for approximately 10-15 minutes of the class. Some research will be necessary. This is a starting point for discussion, not polished research paper. A brief written statement (approx. 2 pages) will outline your goals in the presentation and will be considered in the grade which will reflect preparedness and competence with the material.

Prerequisites

Students are responsible for ensuring that their selection of courses is appropriate and accurately recorded and that all course prerequisites have been successfully completed, and that they are aware of any antirequisite course(s) that they have taken. If the student does not have the requisites for a course, the University reserves the right to remove the student from the course and to delete it from the student's record. This decision may not be appealed. A student will receive no adjustment to his or her fees in the event that he or she is dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.

Information for students

Departmental and university policies related to course work, grades, plagiarism, appeals, etc. are available on the English Department website. Please see:
