

General Information:

1. Regular attendance at lectures is essential. Absenteeism can result in debarment from writing the final examination, which in the Department of English and Writing Studies results in failure of the course.
2. Essays are due on the dates specified above, but each student will be allowed a total of FIVE grace days to be used at his/her discretion. Two percent per day (including weekends) will be deducted from late essays once the 5 grace days have been used up. No paper will be accepted later than three weeks after the due date.
3. All essays should be double-spaced and typewritten or printed in a standard font. Please follow MLA format (see attached guidelines). Essays should be handed in during class or dropped off in the Department of English Essay Drop-Off Boxes (across from AHB 2G02). Do not leave essays under office doors.
4. The Tutorial Grade, which will be assigned by your tutorial leader, will reflect your presence in tutorial and your lively participation in discussions, exercises, and other marked work. Half of the tutorial grade will be based on attendance and participation, while the other half will be based on discussion questions that you formulate once per term to guide the class discussion.
5. All grades, once assigned and/or posted, are final. While formal appeal processes do exist in the Department of English and Writing Studies, grades will not be changed after the fact in response to emailed requests and/or GPA requirements, nor will the weighting of assignments be altered for individual students.
