- 6. The day after we watch a film, students are required to hand in a 250-word discussion of a single change that was made in the translation from text to film, analyzing its impact on the meaning of the story. If time permits, there will be an opportunity to brainstorm ideas with other students after we have finished watching the film as a preparation for this assignment.
- 7. The Participation Grade will reflect your presence in class and your lively participation in discussions.
- 8. All grades, once assigned and/or posted, are final. While formal appeal processes do exist in the Department of English and Writing Studies, grades will not be changed after the fact in response to emailed requests and/or GPA requirements, nor will the weighting of assignments be altered for individual students.

Scholastic Offences, including Plagiarism

Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea, or a passage of text from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence (see Scholastic Offence Policy as above).

Your title should indicate your topic and the works you will be discussing. Titles of books should be italicized. Titles of short poems, articles, and short stories (including fairy tales) should be put in quotation marks.

Introduce quotations in your own words, identifying the speaker and context: i.e.

If you are using an online version of a novel which has no page numbers, you may use chapter numbers instead (ch. 13). If the quotation is longer than four lines, do not use quotation marks; instead, indent the passage ten spaces from the left and continue to double space.

Those who had caught sight of them said that they had greatly altered (ch. 1) s name in the parenthetical reference if the identity of the author is already clear from the context. List all the works you have referred to in a Works Cited list at the end of your paper.
