English 9920 (SF)/ 9940 (PF)

WOMEN'S LITERATURE AND GENDER STUDIES

RUBRIC

Candidates writing the secondary exam should select three sub-fields, including gender studies, on which to focus. From these fields, candidates should select 80 texts, divided roughly equally among the three fields. (Often several texts are listed per author; you may choose as few or many texts listed per author as you wish to make up your totals.) If the candidate wishes, they may add up to 5 texts not represented on this list to their final roster. These additions must be made in consultation with the committee.

Candidates writing the primary exam should select four sub-fields, including gender studies, on which to focus. From these fields, candidates should select 100 texts, divided roughly equally among the four fields. (Often several texts are listed per author; you may choose as few or many texts listed per author as you wish to make up your totals.) If the candidate wishes, they may add up to 10 texts not represented on this list to their final roster. These additions must be made in consultation with the committee.

Note that in subfields 1-5, texts are listed broadly chronologically, from earliest to latest; in subfield 6, texts are listed alphabetically.
