

KATE J. STANLEY
Department of English
Western University
London, ON, Canada N6A 3K7
kate.stanley@uwo.ca

ACADEMIC EMPLOYMENT

Assistant Professor (tenure track)
Department of English, Western University 2012-

EDUCATION

Ph.D. Columbia University, English and Comparative Literature 2013
M.A. University of British Columbia, English Literature 2004
B.A. Queen's University, English Literature 2002

BOOK MANUSCRIPT

"Eye Opening: The Practice of Surprise from Emerson to Cage" (in preparation)

ARTICLES

"Through Emerson's Eye: The Practice of Perception in Proust." American Literary History (forthcoming 2016)

"Henry James's Syntax of Surprise." Henry James Review 34.1 (2013)

"Fault Lines." Special Issue on "Witness," Women's Studies Quarterly 36.1-2 (2008)

REVIEW ESSAYS and OTHER WRITING

CONFERENCE PANEL ORGANIZATION

Panel on "Pragmatism & Plasticity." Modern Languages Association, Vancouver, BC. 2015

With Peter Schwenger, panel on "Cloud Theory." Society for Literature, Science, and the Arts,

2013

Co-founder, Co-coordinator, Seminar on Cultural Memory	2005-12
Member, 20 th C Anglophone Literature Job Search Committee	2008
Conference Co-organizer, "Objects and Memory"	2007

GRADUATE SUPERVISION

Ph.D. Co-supervisor. Patricia Luedecke (2012-); Kara Barfett (2013-)

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

American Comparative Literature Association; C19 Society of Nineteenth-Century Americanists; Modern Languages Association; Modernist Studies Association; Society for Literature, Science, and the Arts