

Pre-approved Elective Course Options for Students Enrolled in the Collaborative Environment and Sustainability Program

The following courses are "pre-approved" for environment and sustainability content* only. Students must still seek the permission of the course instructor and submit a Outside Home Program Course Enrollment Form to the Collaborative Environment and Sustainability program office before enrolment in the course for program credit. Students may not choose a course offered in their home department to fulfill the elective course requirement.

