Calendar Course Description (including prerequisites/anti-requisites):

Selected topics in the areas of sport, exercise, play and dance. Topic and course description available in the Undergraduate Program Office. Antirequisites and/or additional prerequisites to be determined based on the topic offered.

Prerequisite(s): Completion of second year Kinesiology.

Extra Information: 3 lecture hours.

You are responsible for ensuring that you have successfully completed all course pre-requisites, and that you have not taken an anti-requisite course.

Unless you have either the requisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you may be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.

NOTE: If you wish to enrol in this course without the stated pre-requisite(s), you must obtain written approval from the course instructor. The approval should then be forwarded to your academic counsellor.

My Course Description

In this course, you will learn the core principles and practices of qualitative research in health, sport and exercise through actively engaging in the development of a small research project of interest to you and reflecting on the process. While engaging with important academic sources, you will be experimenting with different methods of data collection and analysis, in an atmosphere of true methodology will enable you to develop more confidently your own research projects, both in an academic and non-academic contexts. This course is especially important for students who would like to pursue graduate training. A committed engagement with the proposed academic readings and weekly tasks as well as active participation in all sessions is expected.

Course Evaluation:

Assignments are due as stated in the course syllabus and will not be accepted late, except under medical or other compassionate circumstances. Submitting a late assignment without appropriate documentation will result in a zero (0) grade. A missed mid-term examination, without appropriate documentation will result in a zero (0) grade. Acceptable reasons might include hospital stays, serious illness, family emergencies (like serious accidents, illness or death) or similar circumstances.

	Submission date (OWL)	%
1. Participation	See below	30%
2. Research reflective report	3 rd February	25%
3. Final research reflective report	4 th April	45%

All the assignments are to be submitted as a Word file through the assignment tool in OWL, by the end of the submission date (11.00 pm).

1. Participation. All the sessions in the course require not only your attendance, but also your active participation. Excellent participation entails timely engagement with the requested readings and tasks. See below for a breakdown of the percentage assigned for participation.

Week Attendance/participation

2. Reflective Research report. During the course, you will develop a small research project by undertaking specific tasks in and out of class every week. These will be organized and presented in the form of a research report. Alongside this work, you will also reflect upon your only learning journey, documenting difficulties and doubts, milestones, new understandings and insights. The requirement length for this assignment is between 1400 and 1600 words. Submit your research reflective report as one Word file through the assignment tool in OWL no later than 11.00 pm on 2020.02.03. A guide for this assignment will be timely available on OWL.
3. Final reflective research report. Expanding your first submission, and taking into account the feedback provided by the instructors and peers, you will be required to present the full version of your research reflective report. The requirement length for this assignment is between 2600 and 2800 words. Submit your research reflective report as one Word file through the assignment tool in OWL no later than 11.00 pm on 2020.04.04.

Formatting: The word count for all assignments exclude the references and title page, if included. Documents should be double-spaced and formatted using a font size no smaller than 12 points. Referencing must follow the APA guidelines.

Note: All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (<http://www.turnitin.com>).

Late policy: All assignments are due on the date and at the time indicated. Late assignments will be penalized at a rate of 1% for each hour after the deadline. No assignments will be accepted more than four days late.

Course/University Policies

1. Statement on Use their use (Guidelines are shown below). Instructors are to communicate clearly to students information on how clickers may be used by the instructor for data gathering and for evaluating the students, and why they cannot be used by anyone but the student (since the students involved in misuse of a clicker may be charged with a scholastic offence).

2. Academic offences: They are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site: https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf

A) Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea, or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence (see Scholastic Offence Policy in the Western Academic Calendar). All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between Western University and Turnitin.com <http://www.turnitin.com>

B) Computer marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating.

3. Electronic Device Usage:

During Exams - Unless you have medical accommodations that require you to do so, or explicit permission from the instructor of the course, you may not use any of the following electronic devices during ANY of the tests, quizzes, midterms, examinations, or other in-class evaluations: cellphones, smart phones, smart watches, smart glasses, audio players or recorders of any sort, video cameras, video games, DVD players, televisions, laptop/notebook/netbook computers, flashlights or laser pointers.

During Lectures and Tutorials: Although you are welcome to use a computer during lecture and tutorial periods, you are expected to use the computer for scholastic purposes only, and refrain from engaging in any activities that may distract other students from learning. Please be respectful to your fellow students and turn the sound off. If the professor receives complaints from other students regarding noise or other disruptive behavior (e.g. watching videos on YouTube.com, updating your Facebook status, playing Solitaire), your classroom privileges will be revoked. From time to time, your professor may ask the class to turn off all computers, to facilitate learning or discussion of the material presented in a particular class. Unless explicitly noted otherwise, you may not make audio or video recordings of lectures nor may you edit, re-use, distribute, or re-broadcast any of the material posted to the course website.

4. Health and Wellness:

Information regarding health and wellness-related issues is available at www.byu.edu/health and www.byu.edu/health. AMCID 10/Lang reW

The following conditions are in place for self-reporting of medical

8. Classroom Behaviour: Class will begin promptly at the time specified at the top of page one of this syllabus. In the event that you must arrive late, please enter the classroom with a minimal disturbance to the class. Please keep all electronic devices on silent and avoid distracting classmates.

9. Student Code of Conduct

The purpose of the Code of Student Conduct is to define the general standard of conduct expected of students registered at Western University, provide examples of behaviour that constitutes a breach of this standard of conduct, provide examples of sanctions that may be imposed and set out
