NOTE:

Course Format:

The course will be interactive, participatory and in seminar format. Students should come to class prepared by having read the relevant texts and ready to engage in group discussions and presentations.

Classes will be discussion based. Students will be assigned readings and these readings will form the basis of class discussion. Students will also be expected to present and articulate their ideas on the topics as assigned in a seminar format.

Learning Outcomes/Schedule:

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

Identify and delineate

Class Attendance/ Participation/quiz on readings (20%) DUE: Date(s) weekly

The readings will be given in class or posted on OWL. The topics or issues will be drawn from our current readings, news items or media reports. Readings will be discussed in class and will form the basis of class discussion. Class attendance and participation and quizzes on readings are worth 20% of the final grade.

Seminar Presentation (20%) DUE: Dates to be assigned in class.

Each seminar presentation will be a 20-30 minute oral and power point presentation (including time for questions) on a case assigned in class by the professor. The seminar presentation will be graded out of 20 marks and will be based on the student's expressed knowledge and comprehension of Calendar). All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system.
