My Course Description

This course is intended to provide you with an overview of various legal issues that arise in the health care industry and sport. We will discuss how the law intersects with regulated health professionals (i.e. Kinesiologists) and the legal issues that impact sport, athletes, coaches, and spectators. Our analysis of legal issues will incorporate private law (i.e. tort law) and public law (i.e. criminal law and administrative law). Throughout the course you are expected to complete readings, attend class and participate in discussions on the readings.
