

Course Objectives

Students seeking academic consideration:

- Are advised to consider carefully the implications of postponing tests or midterm exams or delaying handing in work;
- Are encouraged to make appropriate decisions, based on their specific circumstances, recognizing that minor ailments (e.g., upset stomach) or upsets (e.g., argument with a friend) are not norm

Student Code of Conduct

The purpose of the Code of Student Conduct is to define the general standard of conduct expected of students registered at The University of Western Ontario, provide examples of behaviour that constitutes a breach of this standard of conduct, provide examples of sanctions that may be imposed, and set out the disciplinary procedures that the University will follow. For more information, visit <http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/board/code.pdf> .

Students are expected to attend all classes, read assigned readings prior to class, participate in class discussion, make a genuine contribution to any group activities and respect the opinions of others in the learning process.

Support Services

There are various support services around campus and these include, but are not limited to:

- 1.

renewing respectful relationships with Indigenous communities through our teaching, research and community service.
