Missed Exams:

If you are too ill to write a quiz or exam or there are other 'extenuating circumstances beyond your control' you must document this either with a medical certificate (if available) or by notifying the instructor in writing (with your signature). If you are ill for an extended period of time, it is your responsibility to contact the instructor immediately on your return to campus.

Only one make-up time will be scheduled for missed midterm in the week after the reading week on Friday
March 1st

Health & Wellness - Western University \(uwo.ca\) for a complete list of options about how to obtain help or Thames Valley Family Services (<https://www.familyserVICETHAMESVALLEY.COM/>), a trusted provider within the community. To help you learn more about mental health, Western has developed an interactive mental health learning module, found here: Health & Wellness - Western University \(uwo.ca\). It's also advisable to have a wellness safety plan if you don't want to reach out to formal services. Having the numbers of a few trusted individuals is another strategy.

Common Concerns Guidelines

The table below summarizes a list of common student concerns and how they are to be resolved. If you have a concern that is not listed here, then please email your instructor.

Concern	How to address concern
Course administrative matters	Read through the course outline or email instructor if question cannot be answered from information in the course outline
Course content questions	Refer to the OWL Resources (notes, calendar, etc). Email the instructor.
Grade disputes and requests for appeals	A student requesting an appeal to a specific course with respect to a grade for an assignment or examination much first contact their instructor to discuss such manners. Visit the following website for guide on submitting an appeal: https://uwo.ca/fhs//policies/appeals.html
