describe in simple terms aspects of his/her background, immediate environment and matters in areas of immediate need.

* Students who successfully complete this course

DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM:

FOUR CHAPTER TESTS - 30 minutes (25%)

There will be 4 Chapter Tests. Tests will concentrate on the most recently covered material, but they are cumulative, which means material from past chapters can be used in subsequent Chapter Tests. (Detailed calendar will be provided through the Owl site)

A Test Outline will be available before each Chapter Test.

ORAL TEST - 10 minutes (5%)

An Oral Test given at the end of the term. Each student will set up a 10-minute interview with the instructor. The Oral Test will include reading, listening and speaking components.

COMPOSITION (5%)

A 200 words Composition, Subject will be announced 2 weeks before (early November).

LAB HOUR (15%)

The contents of the language laboratory periods will be oriented towards oral comprehension (5%) and oral production (5%). These activities will be presented through different approaches: games, role-play, simulations, oral presentations, etc. Attendance and participation during the laboratory classes will be required for all participants (5%).

Language Learning Centre, Lab Room:

exams, participation components and/or assignments worth 10% or more of their final grade must apply to the Academic Counselling office of their home Faculty and provide documentation. Academic accommodation cannot be granted by the instructor or department. Please note that in all courses offered by the Department of French Studies, this same requirement will also apply to assignments worth less than 10% of the final grade. Final examinations must be written at the scheduled time unless formal alternative arrangements for a Special Examination have been approved (by the instructor, the Department and the Home Faculty Dean's Office) based on valid documented grounds.

Statement on Plagiarism, Cheating and other Scholastic Offences

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence in the Academic Handbook available on the Academic Calendar website, here: <http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2015/pg113.html>

Policy on Attendance

“Any student who, in the opinion of the instructor, is absent too frequently from class or laboratory periods in any course, will be reported to the Dean of the Faculty offering the course (after due warning has been given). On the recommendation of the department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean of that Faculty, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course. The Dean of the Faculty offering the course will communicate that decision to the Dean of the Faculty of Registration.” (http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/academic_policies/examinations.html)
