COURSE DESCRIPTION

French 2405A/2145A is a course designed to give students a better knowledge and understanding of French Canada, with an emphasis on the province of Quebec.

For the Winter Term 2017, the topics covered are:

- ı the geography and climate of the province
- ı the history of French Canada
- ı the nature of the French language in Canada
- ı the role of the Church and its influence
- ı the evolution of the educational system
- ı the political history of Quebec

The course is given entirely in French and consists of lectures incorporating digital slides, internet content and videos. This course is also recognized by the Faculty of Education as a Canadian History half-credit towards a Bachelor of Education.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of the course, students will be expected to:

- ı be able to identify some of the major geographical locations and other landmarks in Quebec.

• have a basic understanding of the historical, social and political development of the province.

• be able to identify some of the important historical, social and political figures and events throughout Quebec's history.

• acquire a better understanding of what it is to be Québécois, including the concepts of sovereignty, separatism, and federal and provincial nationalism.

Required Texts: There are no required texts for the course. A web site has been created which includes the majority of the lectures. This "Internet-based textbook" has no multimedia content whatsoever. Also, in-class lectures convey more information than on the site. Students should make sure they have an active Internet account and access to OWL in order to access the web site.

Statement on Plagiarism, Cheating and other Scholastic Offences Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence in the Academic Handbook available on the Academic Calendar website, here:

<http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2014/pg113.html> Policy on Attendance ¶Any student who, in the opinion of the instructor, is absent too frequently from class or laboratory periods in any course, will be reported to the Dean of the Faculty offering the course (after due warning has been given). On the recommendation of the department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean of that Faculty, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course. The Dean of the Faculty offering the course will communicate that decision to the Dean of the Faculty of Registration.¶ (Academic Handbook)
