Important notice : The Department of French Studies has secured classrooms for all courses with sections numbered 001-009, including tutorials, in the event of a return to in-person learning, should the possibility be allowed by Middlesex London Health Unit and the Government of Ontario.

However, as of now, all French courses offered in the Fall 2021 Semester (September-December) a synchronous* and an asynchronous component. Further details will be provided by the professor at the beginning of the course.

* Synchronous component: an online component in which students participate at the same time (synchronously). Students are required to attend scheduled online meetings during the times indicated in the timetable.

Sauf avis contraire : Le cours se déroulera en ligne à l'aide de l'application ZOOM prévue à cet effet sur le site OWL du cours. Les rencontres auront lieu deux fois par semaine aux heures indiquées à l'horaire.

Descriptif :

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence in the Academic Handbook available on the Academic Calendar website.

Policy on Attendance

A student who is absent too frequently from class or laboratory periods in any course, will be reported to the Dean of the Faculty offering the course (after due warning has been given). On the recommendation of the department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean of that Faculty, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course. The Dean of the Faculty offering the course will communicate that decision to the Dean of the Faculty of Registration.

2. Using Zoom:

Tests and examinations in this course will be conducted using Zoom. You will be required to keep your camera on for the entire session, hold up your student card for identification purposes, and share your screen with the invigilator if asked to do so at any time during the exam. The exam session will not be recorded.*

More information about the use of Zoom for exam invigilation is available in the Online Proctoring Guidelines at the following link:

Completion of this course will require you to have a reliable internet connection and a device that meets the system requirements for Zoom. Information about the system requirements are available at the following link:

<https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us>.

* Please note that Zoom servers are located outside Canada. If you would prefer to use only your first name or a nickname to login to Zoom, please discuss this with your instructor in advance of the test or examination.

Accommodation, Illness Reporting and Academic Considerations

Students with disabilities work with Accessible Education (formerly SSD) which provides recommendations for accommodation based on medical documentation or psychological and cognitive testing. The accommodation policy can be found here: Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities.

Academic Consideration for Student Absence

Students will have up to two (2) opportunities during the regular academic year to use an on-line portal to self-report an absence during the term, provided the following conditions are met: the absence is no more than 48 hours in duration, and the assessment for which consideration is being sought is worth

Students should email me within 24 hours of the end of the period of the self-reported absence.

Students are not able to use the self-reporting option in the following circumstances:

for exams scheduled by the Office of the Registrar (e.g., December and April exams) absence of a duration greater than 48 hours,
pass final grade,
if a student has already used the self-reporting portal twice during the academic year

If the conditions for a Self-Reported Absence are not met, students will need to provide a Student Medical Certificate if the absence is medical, or provide appropriate documentation if there are compassionate grounds for the absence in question. Students are encouraged to contact their Faculty academic counselling office to obtain more information about the relevant documentation.

Students should also note that individual instructors are not permitted to receive d
