COURSE POLICIES:

Learning Environments and Email Policies

Participants enrolled in this class are expected to complete the required course readings, attend all class sessions, respectfully contribute to classroom activities and discussions, and complete course assignments on time. Electronics such as computers and smartphones are permitted. However, please be respectful and refrain from using your electronics for outside activity during class. Using technology in distracting ways (to yourself and/or others) can impact your participation grade. Please have your telephones set to silent. You will not be permitted to use electronics during the final examination. Our learning environments (including online) will be respectful spaces. We will try to reply to emails within twenty-four hours. Please do not expect an immediate response. Put the course code in the subject line of the email. Be as specific as possible with your questions. Specific questions receive specific answers. We may not be able to respond to emails on weekends or during the evenings. However, your term instructor will check email every twenty-four hours during the work week. If your question is more appropriately handled in-person (covid conditions permitting), please feel free to make an appointment during office hours or see your term instructor after class.

Attendance Policy

Please notify your professor and copy the course TA if you are unable to attend lecture. Persistent absenteeism could be grounds for failure in the course. The term instructor will contact you indicating your absence if you are absent from three classes.

OWL

Use of Owl/Sakai is necessary for successful completion of this course. This includes accessing readings as stipulated in the course outline, downloading instructions and guidelines for assignments, and submitting assignments to Turnitin.com. All course information, including assignments, will be posted on the course website: <https://owl.uwo.ca/portal>

Late Assignment Policy

Late assignments will be deducted 2% per day. The application essay each term must be submitted electronically to the Turnitin site via Owl and the deadline for receipt is registered by the system – so be sure to verify your assignment has been successfully uploaded. A hard copy of your assignment may be required (more specific details will be given in the assignment instructions) and, if so, you can drop off a late paper copy to the Gender, Sexuality, and Women's Studies Dropbox outside Rm. 3260 in Lawson Hall. Assignments will not be accepted by email.
