- Post exposure medical prophylaxis is recommended in the following 3 scenarios:
  1. Direct parenteral inoculation (injection exposure)
  2. Contact with mucous membranes or non-intact skin
  3. Direct c
     outside the primary containment

- The recommended treatment for lentivirus is 7 d
  Isentress (Raltegravir) 400mg BID – a one-day course is currently Health Services

- Please have the employ their blood test results sent

The prompt attention to this
UWO signature: Date:

LHSC sig Date:

Revised: December 2017, October 2018