

Injury to A Western Employee from A Non-Human Primate (Rhesus) Virus exposure After Hours Care

Attention: University Hospital Emergency Department:

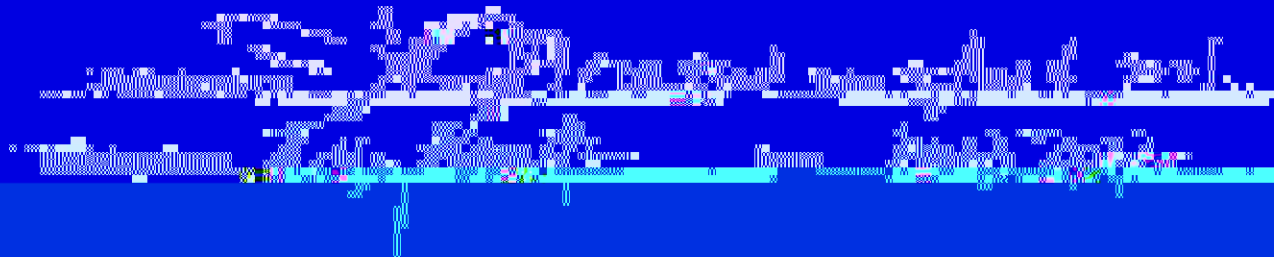

- Western employee, age, gender, and potential exposure to B.V. from a non-human primate from one of the animal areas at Western University.

Have you seen this?

Western University Animal Care and Use Committee (ACUC) is currently reviewing an incident involving a Western University employee who was exposed to a B.V. virus from a non-human primate while working in the animal area.

10/13

Western University Animal Care and Use Committee and the University of Western Ontario, in the event of an emergency response to a B.V. virus exposure at the University of Western Ontario.

The member(s):