Plagiarism

(see: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/handbook/appeals/scholastic_discipline_grad.pdf).

Plagiarism a major academic offense is the inclusion of someone else's verbatim or paraphrased text in one's own written work without immediate reference. Verbatim text must be surrounded by quotation marks or indented if it is longer than four lines. A reference must follow right after borrowed material (usually the author's name and page number). Without immediate reference to borrowed material, a list of sources at the end of a written assignment does not protect a writer against a possible charge of plagiarism. This also applies to work facilitated or written for students by third parties. Please submit your
