Oral Presentations : there will be two presentations, one per term, on topics related to Italian culture.

- Group presentation (approximately 20 minutes): Each group, consisting of 3 or 4 students, will be assigned a different topic to cover and present to the rest of the class. Topics and groups will be communicated to students in advance so as to give each group sufficient time to meet before the presentations. It is expected that students will organize their group work autonomously. In other words, the instructor can be consulted for help but will not arrange their work. Students will be evaluated for their individua I performance (i.e., for the capacity to develop and illustrate a particular aspect of the topic assigned to their group) and for their contribution to the performance of the group (i.e., how individual performance fits in and adds to the group's performance). Role-play and imitation of real-life situations will be constituent parts of the presentation.
