

Dean's Waiver of Progression Requirements

Faculty of Science

Overview

A student who has been Required to Withdraw (RTW) from the University and whose academic standing is below the minimum required for progression is eligible for a Dean's Waiver of Progression Requirements. This waiver is intended for students impacted by serious health issues or other challenges, including medical, legal, or family issues, that are serious, a waiver is unlikely to be granted. You must demonstrate that you acted promptly and made every possible effort to return to good academic standing.

You should be able to demonstrate that you acted promptly and made every possible effort to return to good academic standing.

For more information, please contact the Faculty of Science Academic Advising and Learning Development & Success Center.

Please answer these questions:

1. Describe the academic problems that led to your Required to Withdraw status, including your performance during the past academic year, and when did these problems occur?
Please provide a detailed description of the academic problems that led to your Required to Withdraw status, including your performance during the past academic year, and when did these problems occur.

2. Describe the steps you took to get help when you were facing these problems, e.g., reaching out to your instructors, Academic Advising, Learning Development & Success, medical professionals, or any other support? If you did not reach out to anyone for help, why not?

3. Academic Plan
How will you approach your academic plan if granted a Dean's Waiver?
Which program (department) in the Faculty of Science do you intend to enroll in next year? If you are having major challenges with courses in the subject area you wish to pursue your degree in, you must propose a course of action.
