than one person have cohesion and continuity.

A common curriculum will be established in each course (1000-1999) with multiple sections.

Each course (1000-1999) will have one common, compulsory, final examination to be scheduled in the examination period¹, unless the Dean of the Faculty, in consultation with the Education Policy Committee, exempts the course from any of these requirements.

The final examination will be worth a substantial amount, not less than 30% of the final grade in courses numbered 1000-1999, unless the Dean of the Faculty, in consultation with the Educational Policy Committee, exempts the course from this requirement.

The final examination in courses 1000-1999 with more than one section (lecture, tutorial and/or laboratory, however taught) will be marked by some method which seeks to ensure consistency and fairness in marking among all sections, e.g., marking by a course or section committee under the supervision of the
