S.03-27 Senate Membership: Graduate Student Constituency

On behalf of the Operations/Agenda Committee, it was moved by A. Pearson, seconded by R. Harris,

That the Senate seat held by Lynn Bulloch, elected representative to Senate for the Graduate

Professor Carroll asked for clarification of the revision to page 4, section (e) Faculty and Staff, "Similarly, details of medical information supplied to Faculty offices will not be released without the prior consent of the individual." Dean Timney stated that normally when a student misses a final exam for reasons of illness, the student contacts the Dean's office. The Dean's office informs the instructor or department chair but retains the medical slip verifying the illness. Senate policy does not permit medical information to be released directly to faculty members. Professor Carroll contended that in the case of non-final exams, instructors are informed by an Academic Counselor that "medical documentation is on file" although what constitutes the medical documentation is not explained. Dean Timney clarified that the amendment states that medical information will not be released without prior consent of the individual. This does not preclude an individual from consenting to the information being released to the instructor.

ENQUIRIES AND NEW BUSINESS

S.03-47 Decanal Selection - Richard Ivey School of Business

Referring to a recent article in the Globe & Mail, Mr. Makim asked for an update on the Richard Ivey School of Business decanal search. Dr. Moran stated that decanal searches are conducted in a confidential manner with a view to taking whatever time is necessary to ensure that the right person is appointed. The responsibilities of the Dean of the Richard Ivey School of Business are extremely demanding and time consuming. The current dean retires on June 30, 2003, and it is hoped that an announcement of a new dean can be made prior to his departure.

Dr. Davenport added that the decanal selection process is done in a collegial manner -- with the election of members to the decanal selection committee who then work towards filling the decanal position. Securing exactly the right person to be the dean of one of the greatest business schools in the world takes time. Dr. Davenport stated that the University is not responsible for newspaper stories and in general cannot contradict them because of the confidential nature of the decanal selection process.
