The image was posted on May 17, 2022 with a supportive message on both Facebook and Instagram. Within a short time, members of the team reported negative messages but also noted the positive messages being received. A communications specialist from the Office of Equity, Diversion & Inclusion contacted a number of Western clubs to ask for their support, to which one group responded and felt the image was inappropriate. They asked, in writing, for the image to be removed. The Office of Equity, Diversion & Inclusion and Communications considered the request and the Freedom of Expression Policy and responded that though the image may be provocative, it is appropriate and should remain online.
