

September 2 – October 1

Practicum Starts Here! – an exhibition of recently produced artwork by fourth year undergraduate students enrolled in the Practicum class > Artlab Concourse Gallery and Artlab Gallery

Mapping Medievalism at the Canadian Frontier

Mapping Medievalism at the Canadian Frontier at the McIntosh Gallery includes historical maps, Native artifacts and early paintings and watercolours of the region. Its scope is extended through the complementary exhibition Mapping Iroquoia: Shelley Niro and Jeff Thomas, which provides audiences with a contemporary First Nations' perspective on the complex issues raised by the topic.

For full details, visit the website www.mappingmedievalism.ca

Opening reception: Thursday, September 30th at 8:00 pm > McIntosh Gallery

Grad Travel Applications are due in the Grad office by next Friday, October 1st.

September 24th, 7-9 pm

Gallery walk-through with Kelly Jazvac and Nicolas Brown for exhibition Red Bull 3rd Projects
3rd Floor, Queen Street West, Toronto

Western's Homecoming 2010

September 30 – October 3

Visit the Homecoming website for more details.

<http://www.westernhomecoming.uwo.ca/>

<http://www.uwo.ca/arts/Homecoming2010.pdf>

Miriam Jordan and Julian Jason Haladyn are launching their book, First and Distant on Thursday, October 7 at 7:30 pm

in the Theatre at Museum London, 21 Ridout St N.

Admission Free.

Kevin Rodgers has curated an exhibition "If Destroyed, We Should Have To Recreate From Physical Need" featuring work by Kim Adams, Robin Collyer, Claire Greenshaw, Joel Herman, Jen Hutton and Nestor Kruger. Show runs until Oct. 14th at PARKER BRANCH, 141 Stanley St. London.