COURSE DESCRIPTION: This online OWL course is a comprehensive examination of digital photographic approaches and studio production in the context of contemporary art. Students will explore the creative and communicative potential of the camera, post-production environment, and modes of presentation and dissemination. Technical demonstrations and workshops will provide students with a wide range of versatile tools and approaches through which ideas may be explored and developed. Studio production and experimentation will be complemented by a series of online live lectures, readings, online forum discussions, and online critiques aimed at developing critical response skills, conceptual foundations, language appropriate for image evaluation and analysis, as well as a more thorough understanding of historical and contemporary discourses surrounding the photographic image in the context of art production. This is an introductory course intended to prepare students for further study and exploration with digital media. This course does not assume any previous experience of digital photography but does assume basic digital literacy skills. Each online module will begin with exercises and demonstrations that will outline and reinforce basic and essential skill sets before moving on to more advanced content.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: There are seven primary learning outcomes for this online Intro to Digital Photography class. By the end of this course, you will be able to:

Effectively use a digital SLR camera in manual and semi

Articulate their ideas and intents in a clear and effective manner

Analyze and provide constructive and critical feedback on the work of others

Demonstrate appropriate vocabulary and strategies of assessment for photographic imagery

Prerequisite(s): Studio Art 1601 or Studio Art 1605, or the former VAS 1020 or the former VAS 1025, or permission of the Department.

You are responsible for ensuring that you have successfully completed all course prerequisites and that you have not taken an antirequisite course. Lack of prerequisites may not be used as basis of appeal. If you are not eligible for a course, you may be removed from it at any time, and you will receive no adjustment to your fees. These decisions cannot be appealed.

TEACHING METHODS AND DELIVERY:

This is an online OWL course. The variety of formats used in this online class includes technical and theoretical lectures, project work, personal reflections, group discussion, presentations and online modules. The teaching methodology is concerned with ingraining theoretical knowledge through practical experience. Students will also be required to spend a minimum of 5 hours/week developing techniques and strategies introduced in the course, conducting independent research, completing assigned projects, and preparing for discussions and presentations.

methods learned both in class and through independent research, practice and experimentation. Students are encouraged to challenge themselves to explore, personalize, and expand on the
