Course Description and Objectives

Speech 2001 is an intensive practical course dedicated to developing and refining skills in effective oral communication. Students are expected to speak frequently; emphasis is on direct address before a group, with effective organization of ideas, clarity of expression, and use of rhetorical strategies and tactics. All aspects of the arts of delivery, the logical construction of

Course Requirements

This policy will only be waived for medical or compassionate reasons. If you have evidence that would support waiving an absence of one class meeting, provide it to your instructor within one week of that absence. In the case of a medical reason, please see the medical policy outlined below and have a Counselor in your Faculty contact the instructor. If your absence is extended and prolonged (over one week of continuous non-attendance), then you should discuss it with your academic advisor in your home faculty. That advisor may then contact all of your instructors. See the Policy for Medical reasons in the Information for Students in the Writing Program document on the course website.

A missed speech results in a grade of zero unless there are extenuating circumstances to do with health or other unusual circumstances.

On the day you are presenting a speech, you are required to be at class on time. If you are not on time, you will receive a penalty of minus 10% on your speech.

Note: a class meeting missed in order to write a test, exam, or other form of 'make-up class' in another course will count as non-attendance, and will attract penalties as defined above if applicable. Instructors at the University of Western Ontario shall not require a student to write a make-up test or similar at times which conflict with that student's other scheduled class times. If you are asked or 'required' to do this, you should immediately contact an academic counsellor in your Dean's office. If you elect to miss a class in order to write such
