Course Policies

Assignment Format

All assignments are to be , and must have your name, course name, section number, and instr Do not use a cover page; these are particularly unnecessary for online submissions. When using sources (unlikely, but not impossible!), you will be expected to follow MLA, APA, or Chicago citation practice.

Submitting Assignments

Assignments are due on the dates specified in the syllabus. Late work will be penalized at 2.5% per day unless I have permitted an extension of the due date. You must contact me ahead of time for an extension (below).

Attendance/Participation

This is a senior-level seminar course.
revolve around missing peer review. Peer review is an important part of the course. Students who do not participate in the peer review or who fail to submit drafts for peer review will receive a 10% deduction on their assignments (5% for each component). That could be 10% on the each of the four modules.

STUDENT CONDUCT

This ought to go without saying, but please remember, especially as we conduct our conversations remotely and asynchronously, that the use of racist or any language that works against the values of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion will not be tolerated.

SCHOLASTIC OFFENCES, INCLUDING PLAGIARISM

The University Senate requires the following statements, and Web site references, to appear on course outlines:

specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site:
https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf.

Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea, or a passage of text from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence (see Scholastic Offence Policy as above).

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (<http://www.turnitin.com>)

PREREQUISITES

ACCOMMODATION POLICY

Note: the official Western Accommodation Policy appears below. This is in effect and may be modified temporarily by the university during the academic year as conditions require.

Students with disabilities work with Accessible Education Services who provides recommendations for accommodation based on medical, psychological and cognitive testing. The accommodation policy can be found here: Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities.

Academic Consideration for Student Absence

Students will have up to two (2) opportunities during the regular academic year to use an on-line portal to self-report an absence during the term, provided the following conditions are met: the absence is no more than 48 hours in duration, and the assessment for which consideration is being instructors by email within 24 hours of the end of the period of the self-reported absence. Students are not able to use the self-reporting option in the following circumstances:

- for exams scheduled by the Office of the Registrar (e.g., December and April exams)
- absence of a duration greater than 48 hours,

- if a student has already used the self-reporting portal twice during the academic year

If the conditions for a Self-Reported Absence are not met, students will need to provide a Student Medical Certificate if the absence is medical, or provide appropriate cC
