grounds, or for other reasons. All such documentation must be submitted directly to the Academic Counselling Office of your Faculty of Registration.

Assessments worth less than 10% of the overall course grade:

If you miss Test 1 (5%) you may consult directly with me – as soon as possible – to arrange a date/time to write a make-up test.

Assessments worth 10% or more of the overall course grade:

For work totaling 10% or more of the final course grade – in practice, any assignment in this course other than Test 1 – you must provide valid medical or supporting documentation directly to the Academic Counselling Office of your Faculty of Registration as soon as possible.

If you receive a recommendation for academic consideration from your Dean's office, you and I will then arrange a make-up date/time for a missed Test, or an extension for an essay.

All instructor-written materials (e.g. PowerPoints, lecture notes, oral lectures) for this course are created solely for students' personal use within the course, and remain the instructor's intellectual property. Further reproduction, fixation, distribution, transmission, dissemination, communication, or any other uses, without securing the consent of the copyright owner (the course instructor) may be an infringement of copyright. You may not distribute, email, or otherwise communicate these materials to any other person. These limitations extend to recording, photographing, or sharing lectures (online or in-person) and lecture material without permission. Posting the instructor's content from this course to online course sharing sites like OneClass or Course Hero without permission is both an infringement of intellectual property law and a violation of academic integrity guidelines. The instructor will pass these cases on to the Western University Ombudsperson or their Department Chair as appropriate.
